"All students of First Year have been granted progression to Second Year (2025-2026). For progression to Third Year a student will have to clear any one year (First Year or Second Year) completely without any backlog". This is as per the resolution passed in the Academic Council and Governing Body of the college under autonomy.

However this resolution is not applicable in case of students who have been debarred from appearing for exams under UMIC

All students seeking admission to Second Year MUST contact the college office for details regarding the admission process at the earliest between 9.30am and 12.30 pm on all working days.
